Photo Permission Form

Dear Parents,

As part of our educational programme, we use photography to document children's social, emotional and cognitive development. We want to work with you to maximise your child's engagement, and so we need your permission to photograph your child and display them in the centre. We'll also be able to share any photos of your child's participation in special occasions through our newsletter!

Digital Use Permission Form

Dear Parents,

Photography and videography are our chosen methods of documenting your child's progress in advancing through our programme. We'd love to share these with you via our various social media platforms, and through the gallery on our website. In order to do this, we need your permission and will endeavour to work collaboratively with you to guarantee your child's happiness!

Local Excursion Inclusion Form

Dear Parents,

As part of our educational model, we like to make use of the resources available to us in the local community. This includes visiting The Children's Garden from time to time, walking to local parks, schools and community centres. If you would like us to include your child, please fill out this document with the relevant information and we will make sure to include you in our future local adventures!
